

Turbinado Sugar Evaporated Cane Juice INCI: Sucrose

Description: Golden Turbinado is an all natural sweetener produced from the first crystallization of juice pressed from the sugar cane stalk. It provides a mild cane flavor, full sweetness and pale golden color in a fine granulated form. Golden Turbinado may be substituted for any application in which granulated or brown sugar is normally used. The coarser granulation of Golden Turbinado stores well and is easily handled. This minimally processed product is also a natural choice for a variety of applications including cereals, baking, and confections. It is also suitable for personal care applications such as body scrubs.

Physical Attributes:

- first crystallization sugar, made at the mill from cane juice
- contains more molasses than conventional sugar giving it a natural blond color
- stores well and handles easily.
